About the Boal Estate

The Boal Estate has been a part of Boalsburg, Happy Valley, and American and European history for over 200 years, and been home to eight generations of the Boal family. A 501c(3) nonprofit organization, the museum is home to a number of tangible relics from the family's incredible international ancestry as well as a large collection of weapons and tools from medieval times throughout World War I. Your wedding at the Boal Estate supports our preservation efforts.

Our Service

For purposes of wedding planning, we are a venue rental ready to host your ceremony, reception, or both! We allow you to contract with vendors of your choice to ensure your wedding day is exactly, perfectly yours!

Words of Praise

"Columbus Chapel & Boal Mansion Museum was a beautiful venue for our special day! My wedding party loved having a private tour the day before the wedding. Anna also left the cutest basket in our dressing room, including non-alcoholic wine for our underage bridal party members."
-Ann-Marie, 2023 bride
